

PALIMPSEST

Un-conference series

Three Rivers' Tales: Encounters at the Art-Research Interface

FRIDAY 21st MARCH 2025 02.30-04.30 pm - Online Webinar

How do water and artistic perspectives interact in times of environmental crisis?

The seminar brings together artists and researchers to explore water as a medium of connection, transformation, and political change. Through three intertwined narratives, we'll navigate water-related imaginaries and practices at the intersection of art and research.

Introduction

Francesca Berni DASTU Polimi, PALIMPSEST Project

Opening Discussion

Speakers reflect on a common thread connecting their perspectives

Presentations

"Acqua Lambro" | gethan&myles PALIMPSEST Project

"Digging for water" | Giorgos Sachinis UrbanDig Project

"The Day the Flood Took Over the Theater: A Story of the Making of Kepler-452's Album" | Riccardo Tabilio Kepler-452

Discussion

With

Teresa Di Muccio DASTU Polimi, UNLOCK THE CITY!

Stefano Beghi Karakorum Teatro, PALIMPSEST Project

Irene Bianchi DASTU Polimi, PALIMPSEST Project

Moderated by Francesca Berni

Open Q&A & Closing Remarks

Organised by
Francesca Berni, Irene Bianchi

QRcode for the webinar registration